

Business Leaders Trivia Quiz

Instructions: Use the following clues below to identify the notable leaders of large, global corporations.

1. I used my massive wealth from steel mills for philanthropic ventures - most notably libraries, universities, museums, and concert halls.
2. I used to be a conservative commentator but my political leanings changed. Now my left-leaning blog and news-aggregating website is one of the most visited in the world.
3. Before founding the rubber company that still bears my name, I was a struggling surgeon who served on the battlefields of the American Civil War.
4. I'm usually ranked #1 or #2 in the list of the world's wealthiest people. Not bad for a college dropout.
5. My fortune, which once had me listed as the richest person in the world, comes from a variety of interests in my native Mexico.
6. My HTC Corporation, which I co-founded in Taiwan, manufactures 1 out of every 6 smartphones sold in the US.
7. In addition to founding the hotel chain that bears my name, I was also once married to Zsa Zsa Gabor. Elizabeth Taylor was briefly my daughter-in-law.
8. Though I am no longer a princess after my divorce, my wrap dress is still one of the most iconic dresses in fashion history.
9. My eponymous company grew out of my interest in the beauty products business of my uncle, a chemist.
10. I am the richest woman in Nigeria. My Rose of Sharon Foundation helps widows and orphans by empowering them through scholarships and business grants.
11. My Model T came in any color as long as it was black.
12. I am famous not only for my airplane and movie businesses, but also for my eccentric behavior and obsessive fear of germs.
13. I dominated banking and finance during the Gilded Age and rescued the US from the Panic of 1907.

14. The founding of my eponymous conglomerate made me a pioneer industrialist in India, and I am known as the 'Father of Indian Industry'.

15. I founded Standard Oil Company and my fortune, adjusted for inflation, makes me the richest person in US history.

16. Along with my fellow Stanford graduate student Sergey Brin, I founded Google. You can Google it if you don't believe me.

17. I was the first child in my family born into freedom after the Emancipation Proclamation, and I later became the first female self-made millionaire in America.

18. I have 95 million followers on Facebook.

19. My eponymous show was the highest-rated talk show in US television for many years. It made me a hugely influential and extremely rich woman.

20. My Virgin Group started out as a mail-order record business run out of a garage. Now my billionaire lifestyle also includes attempts to circumnavigate the globe in a balloon.

21. Are you going to the Oscars or Emmys? Be sure to wear my Spanx bodywear to look your best in that fancy dress.

22. With my high school friend Steve Wozniak, I founded Apple in 1976 but was forced out in 1985. After returning in 1997, everything changed.

23. I am a media mogul who founded the CNN and TNT TV networks. I also used to own the Atlanta Braves.

24. It all started with a mouse. Now it is an entertainment empire.